

UNITED WAY OF CENTRAL JERSEY

Website Privacy Policy

1. Questions about United Way of Central Jersey's Privacy Policy

This Website is owned and operated by United Way of Central Jersey. We recognize that visitors to our website may be concerned about the information they provide to us, and how we treat that information. This Privacy Policy addresses those concerns. If you have any question about our Privacy Policy, please contact:

President, Chief Professional Officer
United Way of Central Jersey
32 Ford Avenue
Milltown, NJ 08850

2. Website Information Accuracy

The policy of United Way of Central Jersey is to present correct and accurate information. If inaccuracies come to our attention, United Way of Central Jersey will attempt to correct them in a timely manner. To report any Website inaccuracies please email info@uwcj.org

3. Privacy Policy

United Way of Central Jersey seeks to respect and protect the privacy of our visitors and only gathers personally identifiable data such as names, addresses, zip/postal codes, email addresses, etc. when voluntarily submitted by a visitor. For example, personally identifiable information may be collected in order to complete a donation transaction or a volunteer application. United Way of Central Jersey does not share lists or other information collected with any other organizations.

It is the policy of United Way of Central Jersey to maintain accurate information. If you would like to review information you have provided, please contact us via US mail or email info@uwcj.org. United Way of Central Jersey will correct information that is inaccurate.

4. Opt-Out

Visitors may opt-out of having their personal information used by United Way of Central Jersey to send promotional correspondence or information by contacting United Way of Central Jersey via US mail, email at info@uwcj.org.

5. Disclosure

At times, United Way of Central Jersey may be required by law or legal process to disclose information about you to others. United Way of Central Jersey may also disclose information about you if it believes that disclosure is necessary for the public interest and/or safety.

United Way of Central Jersey does not knowingly solicit personal information from children or send them requests for personal information.

6. Security

Our website has industry standard security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control. Because we care about the safety and security of online transactions, we use high-grade encryption and https security protocol which is the industry standard security protocol.

This makes it difficult for anyone else to intercept the credit card information you provide. Companies we work with to process credit card transactions also use high-grade encryption and security protocols.

Even though United Way of Central Jersey will take all reasonable steps to protect your personal and financial information, we cannot and do not guarantee its confidentiality or security.

If you prefer, contributions can be made by calling 732-247-3727 or you can mail your donation to:

United Way of Central Jersey
32 Ford Avenue
Milltown, NJ 08850

7. Tell-A-Friend

If a user elects to use our referral service for informing a friend about our site, we request the friend's name and email address. United Way of Central Jersey will automatically send the friend a one-time email inviting them to visit the site. United Way of Central Jersey will store this information for the sole purpose of sending this one time email.

8. Other Websites

Our site contains links to other Websites. Please note that when you click on one of these links, you are entering another Website for which United Way has no responsibility. We encourage you to read the privacy statement on all other Websites as their policies may be different from ours.

This is our general policy. We offer additional privacy guarantees specific to donors.